» SCRUBBED UP

The Iris Hantverk company has produced high-quality household brushes for the kitchen, bathroom and garden since the 1800s. Made in a small factory outside Stockholm, the brushes are handmade by visually-impaired craftsmen. This sturdy bath brush made from birch and natural horse hair can be used wet or dry. Duck bath brush, $41. Funkis, funkis.com.au.

» CHECK IT OUT

Designer Greg Natale's Italian heritage provided inspiration for his new range of mosaic tiles, with the first sneak peak here. Available in a few weeks, it's the second collection of floor and wall tiles Natale has created in collaboration with Teranova Ceramics, and features seven striking geometric patterns. Sottsass in Nero Marquina and Carrara Gioia, from $329 a square metre. Greg Natale, 8399 2103, gregnatale.com.

⚡ COOL CHANGE

New season furniture and accessories are arriving at Freedom, getting ready for cooler days ahead. The Urban Tribe collection mixes raw timber, luxe leather and burnished brass in the form of textured rugs, modular sofas and accent pieces like the Half Moon round mirror to add a contemporary finishing touch. Half Moon 90-centimetre mirror, $399. Freedom, 1300 135 588, freedom.com.au.

⚡ HANG IT ALL

Rogerseller has refreshed its popular Strap range of robe hooks, paper holders, soap dish and shower shelf, adding a hard-wearing matte black finish to the polished and stainless steel versions. It's a sleek and contemporary look with no visible join lines. Matte black Strap shower tray, $225, and robe hook, $80.
